

Goldfields Mine Survey Seminar Thursday 11th October 2007

Venue: WMC Conference Centre - MacDonald St, Kalgoorlie

The Spatial Sciences Institute (WA Region), the Kalgoorlie Engineering & Mine Surveyors Interest Group (KEMSIG) and the Curtin Mine Survey Program are presenting a seminar focusing on Open Pit & Underground Mine Surveying in Western Australia. Please direct all Seminar enquires to: kemsig@hotmail.com

Time	Topic	Presenter
9.00am	Registration Opens
9.30am	Welcome	KEMSIG
9.50am	Mine Survey Board - Update	Russell Haigh
10.10am	DOCEP - Update	Louise Fogarty
10.30am	Morning Tea
11.00am	TAFE – Future Direction of Survey Program	Wayne Race
11.30am	Curtin – Future Direction of Survey Program	Curtin
12.00pm	Benchmark Software - Wall Stations 2007	Brendon McCormack
12.30pm	Lunch
1.15pm	Open Pit Mining through Voids - KCGM	Gary Bungard
1.45pm	Inspection & Survey of Vertical Openings	Andrew Jarosz James Langdon
2.15pm	Guest Speaker - "Beaconsfield Tragedy – The Role of the Mine Surveyor"	Simon Arthur Senior Surveyor Beaconsfield JV
2.45pm	Break
3.00pm	Industry Perspective – Open Pit Survey	Paul Craine Superintendent Mine Survey – Pilbara Iron
3.30pm	Industry Perspective – Underground Survey	Greg Campbell Campbell Collins Mining Services
4.00pm	SSIWA – Discussion & Close	KEMSIG
4.30pm	Drinks – WASM Social Club

WALIS will be holding a free regional seminar concurrently during the morning sessions in the Curtin University Seminar room, 55A Macdonald Street. Please see the attached flyer & for further details & registrations, please contact Karen Barns at Karen.barns@walis.wa.gov.au

